What to bring to your showroom appointment

A dimensioned sketch drawing of existing cabinet space, or if changing, a dimensioned drawing of new proposed space. Measurements should be close, but don't worry about being precise, as these will be used only for the purpose of establishing a preliminary budget. Dimensions should include room width and height, door and window locations (include casings with overall dimensions and indicate size of casings), and lastly, location of plumbing and ducting if these are not moving. If there are soffits that are not being removed please indicate height and depth of these as well. Resident design retainer is $199 and includes on site measure
